ASHHRA REGION 4 NEWS

VOLUME 1, ISSUE 1

MARCH 2011

News from Region 4:

I recently had the privilege of attending the Florida Society of Healthcare Human Resources Association's annual conference held at the Gaylord Palms in Orlando, Florida. Chip Madera opened the conference with a presentation that was truly a "Wow" moment. He's also presenting at the ASHHRA conference in Phoenix in September, so please don't miss this awesome experience. I met a lot of great people, acquired valuable information from their educational presentations and had a fantastic time. Thanks to all the folks from Florida and keep up the good work!

I look forward to attending the Tennessee and South Carolina conferences in April and will give an update in the June newsletter.

Reminder:
Be sure to use the ASHHRA website for all your HR resource needs:
www.ashhra.org

We had our first Region 4 conference call on February 23rd, which was attended by Joey Boyce from South Carolina and Cathy Roberts from the West Central Florida Chapter. I encourage the chapter presidents or designee to participate in the calls so that I will have information about your chapter to add to the newsletter. The dates for future calls are May 25th, August 24th, and November 16th. I have sent dial in information to the chapter presidents and will forward again prior to the dates.

Hearing on Emerging Trends at the National Labor Relations Board

Roger King, our very own ASHHRA member, testified before the Hearing on Emerging Trends at the National Labor Relations Board House Education and the Workforce Committee's subcommittee on Health, Employment, Labor and Pension. Below is, in part, the conclusion of his testimony. You can view his entire remarks at <http://www.ashhra.org/advocacy/index.shtml>.

"In conclusion, I have not meant to overstate the concerns of employers regarding the above matters. Perhaps when the Roundy's, Specialty healthcare, and other pending important decisions before the Board are decided, concerns of dramatic reversals of precedent and inappropriate rulemaking will be proven to be unfounded,. I hope that this is the outcome regarding such matters. The Board, however, has put these issues in play particularly by proceeding with only two confirmed Board Members and over the strong dissent of the lone Republican Board Member. Further, the exceptionally accelerated manner in which the Board is proceeding, and in certain instances bypassing the procedural safeguards of the APA, raise serious questions. Hopefully, the Board will properly utilize its resources, including being totally transparent regarding its intentions with respect to off-site electronic voting. Finally, hopefully the Board also will embrace the objectives and desired outcomes of President Obama's January 18, 2011 Executive Order and not only curtail certain of its initiatives but also reexamine all of its rules and regulations."

ASHHRA E-Learning Update - Online Course

Title: The New Labor Relations Board: What the New Appointment Will Mean for Your Organization

Description: Understand how the recent changes to the NLRB may impact your health care institution. Be aware of these changes not only as a health care HR professional but also as an employer. While knowledgeable observers generally agree the Employers Free Choice Act (EFCA) has little chance of enactment in the near future, employers should not become complacent. Labor law reform is moving forward, with or without EFCA. The appointment of pro-labor attorneys Craig Becker and Mark Pearce to the National Labor Relations Board to cement a solid three-member pro-labor Board majority will result in rulemaking and decisional changes that undoubtedly will energize the labor movement.

Learning Objectives:

Review the recent and expected changes to federal labor law, Understand the impact of those changes and how this could affect your organization, and Develop pro-active strategies to respond to the changes.

Faculty:

Howard M. Bloom, Partner, Jackson Lewis LLP and Michael J. Lotito, Member of Jackson Lewis' Management Committee and Partner, Jackson Lewis LLP. Click here to enroll.
