2013 Legislative and Regulatory Priorities

v. December 18, 2012

Purpose

The American Society for Healthcare Human Resources Administration (ASHHRA) and the American Hospital Association (AHA) tackle legislative and regulatory matters critical to the health care industry each year. Topics generally fall under the following:

- Employee Relations
- Jobs
- Labor Activity
- Workforce Development

Through the course of the year ASHHRA and the AHA offer quarterly webinars, face-to-face sessions, monthly publications, semi-annual labor activity reports, opportunity to visit the hill, whitepapers, and articles to help further the understanding of these issues.

Staff

Stephanie Drake, ASHHRA Executive Director

Jamie Macander, ASHHRA Education Senior Specialist

Michael Paruta, ASHHRA Advocacy Chair, Director of Workforce Development, Care New England Health System

Carla Luggiero, AHA Senior Associate Director of Federal Relations

Lawrence Hughes, AHA Assistant General Counsel

Mindy Hatton, AHA Senior Vice President and General Counsel

Issues

LEGISLATION - Work to prevent legislation that would:

- Create payment cuts as it relates to jobs
- Adversely affect HR departments and hospitals under OFCCP regulations and audits
- Adversely impact hospitals as it relates to union organizing.

REGULATIONS – Monitor, comment where appropriate in conjunction with the AHA, and lobby against:

- Where recruitment and hiring procedures reviewed EEOC / Background Checks would adversely impact hospitals
- The NLRB access to employers property and equipment (i.e. email)
- “Persuader” reporting requirements from Office of Labor Management Standards (OLMS), a part of the Department of Labor (DOL).

Accomplishments in 2012

- The AHA Policy and Federal Relations group has been a long-time collaborator of ASHHRA. ASHHRA collects the data for the Semi-Annual Labor Activity Report twice annually with IRI Consultants and AHA. ASHHRA continues its collaboration with the AHA and IRI Consultants to produce the periodic Health Care Labor Report (HCLR) for the ASHHRA membership and the CEO audience. HCLR comes out quarterly.
- A motion was filed by the AHA, ASHHRA, and others for Leave to Participate as Amici Curiae in February 2012.
- A joint Letter from AHA and ASHHRA was sent to Sen. Michael B. Enzi regarding the NLRB's Rule on "Ambush Elections" April 23, 2012.

- The ASHHRA Advocacy Committee continued its efforts in letting our voices be heard by visiting Capitol Hill in May of 2012. During a record number of 50 visits, Members of Congress were presented with AHA/ASHHRA position papers on matters critical to our industry: Workforce Development and Employee Relations. The 2012 position papers can still be found on the website in the Advocacy section. In July of 2012, ASHHRA and AHA held a webinar recapping the Hill Visit.
- In the third quarter edition of the HR Pulse, an article was included recapping the ASHHRA Hill Visit in May. This edition was also distributed to the 821+ conference attendees along with the membership of 3500.
- In September of 2012 at the ASHHRA 48th Annual Conference & Exposition, ASHHRA, AHA, and Jones Day held two learning sessions addressing these issues outlined above.
- In December ASHHRA held a Labor Update which explored current trends in labor and employee relations along with the election impact.
