Outstanding Chapter Achievement Award

The Executive Committee for Colorado Healthcare Association for Human Resource Management would like to nominate Gini Adams for the Outstanding Chapter Achievement Award for 2007. Gini has been an active member of CHAHRM for several years. At her first meeting, she volunteered to be the eastern Colorado liaison, which means she supports and recruits members from the eastern rural hospitals in the state. She has not missed a chapter meeting since that time and continues to look for ways to support the chapter. During the past year, Gini was our scholarship chairperson and was instrumental in helping increase applications for our awards. She also helped develop a new scholarship program for HR professionals who want to gain or increase their professional certification and/or education.

In addition to the scholarship chairperson, Gini also served as co-chairman for programs, focusing on program locations and logistics. In her role, Gini single-handedly negotiated contracts with hotels for each of our three programs throughout the year, ensuring pricing that was within our budget. She has been able to create relationships with those vendors to negotiate for ongoing discounts. She chose locations based on feedback from our members and has continued to strive to increase participation in the programs because of program venues. In our program evaluations, there have been consistent rave reviews regarding location of programs, lodging accommodations, as well as menus. For every program, Gini has chosen these and done a tremendous job. Our chapter members are grateful for the consideration and contributions that she has made to our organization, which is why we believe she should be awarded the Outstanding Chapter Achievement Award.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Shelli D. Lind".

Shelli Lind, SPHR
