ASHHRA Recognizes Outstanding Human Resource Professionals

CHICAGO – October 2013 – The American Society for Healthcare Human Resources Administration (ASHHRA), a personal membership group of the American Hospital Association (AHA), recognized the ‘Best of the Best’ health care human resource professionals at its 49th Annual Conference & Exposition in Washington, D.C., in September.

Through the Chapter Management Awards Program, ASHHRA honors its chapter members who have excelled in various areas of leadership and professional development. The recognition categories for which awards were given are Outstanding Chapter Achievement, Chapter Management Recognition, Outstanding Chapter Officer Award, Communication Award, Outstanding Leadership Services Award, HR Leadership, and the National Mentoring Award. Forty-six individuals and sixteen chapter awards were presented. The complete list of honorees is available on the ASHHRA website at www.ashhra.org.

“We are proud to recognize our members in such a glorious manner. They work hard for their organizations and for their chapters, and we feel it is befitting to bestow this honor upon them,” said ASHHRA Senior Executive Director of AHA Professional Services Stephanie Drake. The Winter issue of the ASHHRA HR Pulse magazine, which is scheduled for release in late November, highlights the ASHHRA Chapter Awards Program and includes the listing of each individual and chapter honoree.
