For Immediate Release

ASHHRA Unveils New Member Community: ASHHRA Exchange

CHICAGO – February 28, 2017 – With ASHHRA Exchange, American Society for Healthcare Human Resources Administration (ASHHRA), a personal membership group of the American Hospital Association (AHA), delivers a powerful resource for members to network with their health care human resources colleagues, exchange knowledge and share solutions.

ASHHRA Exchange, an exclusive member benefit, facilitates connections and discussions among all ASHHRA members. The Exchange automatically enrolls all ASHHRA members, is a cloud-based, private online community. Several unique forums have been identified for launch, including an Open Forum for general discussion, a forum to discuss the Certified in Healthcare Human Resources (CHHR) certification, and a forum for affiliated chapter leaders.

“ASHHRA Exchange offers ASHHRA members a powerful resource to connect with their health care HR peers. It represents a unique opportunity for to identify and interact with others from around the country to share information and solve issues. Members will be able to connect in a variety of self-selected open communities, while closed communities will facilitate more unique connection opportunities for select groups,” said ASHHRA Executive Director Catherine Carruth, CAE.

ASHHRA members will receive emails with subscription notifications. In addition to being able to chat with colleagues, members will be able to participate in discussions with subject matter experts, access a library of resources specific to communities, and post images, videos and documents to share with others.

ASHHRA Exchange access is tied to ASHHRA membership. Members will be able to join communities, update individual profiles and manage the frequency of community notifications. To learn more and join the discussion, visit the ASHHRA Exchange website at exchange.ashhra.org.

About ASHHRA

Founded in 1964, the American Society for Healthcare Human Resources Administration (ASHHRA) is a personal membership group of the American Hospital Association (AHA) and has approximately 3,000 members nationwide. ASHHRA leads the way for members to become more effective, valued, and credible leaders in health care human resources. As the foremost authority in health care human resources, ASHHRA provides timely and critical support through research, learning and knowledge sharing, professional development, products and resources, and provides opportunities for networking and collaboration. ASHHRA offers the only certification distinguishing health care human resource professionals, the Certified in Healthcare Human Resources (CHHR). Visit www.ASHHRA.org for more information.

###