For Immediate Release

Tracy Clarke to Join ASHHRA Board

CHICAGO – December 2018 – The American Society for Healthcare Human Resources Administration (ASHHRA), a professional membership group of the American Hospital Association (AHA), recently announced the appointment of Tracy Clarke as At-Large Board Member – Continuum of Care, to complete the term through 2019. Clarke is the chief human resources officer for Hutchinson Clinic in Kansas and has been an ASHHRA member since 2012.

Clarke earned her master’s degree in business administration in 2008, and her professional credentials include the Professional in Human Resources (PHR) as well as the Society for Human Resource Management Certified Professional (SHRM-CP). Clarke has held various positions in health care human resources since 2007, including recruitment coordinator, HR business partner, and director. She has also been an active member and officer in local HR chapters, including serving as chapter president and immediate past president.

Clarke’s appointment to the ASHHRA board is effective immediately, with the term concluding on Dec. 31, 2019.

About ASHHRA
Founded in 1964, the American Society for Healthcare Human Resources Administration (ASHHRA) is a professional membership group of the American Hospital Association (AHA) and approximately 2,600 members nationwide. ASHHRA leads the way for members to become more effective, valued, and credible leaders in health care human resources. As the foremost authority in health care human resources, ASHHRA provides timely and critical support through research, learning and knowledge sharing, professional development, products and resources, and provides opportunities for networking and collaboration. ASHHRA offers the only certification distinguishing health care human resource professionals, the Certified in Healthcare Human Resources (CHHR).

###